VOLUME 28, NUMBER 11      ELLENSBURG, WASH.      FRIDAY, FEB. 4, 1955

'Name' Band Booked For Monday Date

Les Brown and his Band of Renown have been scheduled to play for the Junior Prom, March 28, the junior class announced this week.

Brown's appearance was assured Tuesday noon when JoAnn Green, Junior class social commissioner, received confirmation from the booking company.

Junior Class officials have been working for several weeks to secure a "name" band for the prom. The administration granted approval to the plans and late leave for the event which is scheduled for the second Monday in spring quarter.

Now that they have administration approval, the juniors are making more definite plans for the dance.

Miss Green has been in charge of securing the band and Vic Olsen, the other junior social commissioner will serve as business manager for the dance.

Dr. E. E. Newschwander is advisor of the junior class.

SOPHS PLAN FOR CUPID'S INFORMAL

Annual Tolo Slated For February 12

"We're hoping for a big crowd as this will be one of the best dances of the year," Nick Vanderstaay, general chairman of Cupid's Informal, announced this week.

The tolo dance, which is sponsored annually by the sophomore class, will be held February 12 in the gym. Harley Brumbaugh's Esquires will provide dance music. Programs will be on sale for $1.25 at the CUB information booth next week.

One candidate for King Cupid will be nominated by each of the women's dormitories and Off Campus Women. Elections will be held next week and King Cupid will be crowned during intermission.

PLANNING CUPID'S INFORMAL details are these committee chairmen of the dance. The annual tolo, which is sponsored annually by the sophomore class, will be held February 12. ### Delegates Named For Model UN

A tentative selection of delegates to the Model UN was announced Tuesday by Dr. Elwyn Odell.

Those chosen are as follows: Charlene Cook, Dave Divelbiss, Landon Estep, Lynne Fairman, James Gleeson, Russ Jones, Young Ho Kim, Lila Malet, Bob Marsh, Colleen Moore, Ian Pau, Harold Poole, Rich Preston, Bob Rancich, Wally Sibbert, Jeff Vowels, Connie Weber, Shirley Willoughby.

A final selection of 10 delegates and four observers will be chosen at a later date after the group has had experience in working together.

The Model UN, to be held this year at San Francisco State College is a replica of the real UN and is held each year. Many colleges throughout the West send delegates to this annual conference.

Central has been chosen to represent Peru at this year's conference. Peru is now a member of the Security Council of the UN and therefore a very important member of the UN.

Spurs Celebrate 6th Anniversary

Members of the Spurs celebrated their sixth year as an active organization on the CWCE campus, at 6:15 last night in the faculty lounge.

Guests attending the "special birthday party" included Mrs. Annette Hitchcock, Mrs. Catharine Bullard, and all girls on campus who are past members of the Spurs.

Entertainment for the event included a harp solo by Kay Cook, a vocal solo by Kathy Spurgeon, and an interpretive dance by Mary Jo Lien. Coffee and cake topped off the festive activities.

Central Bandsmen Prepare for Annual Tour; Director Chooses Fifty Musicians for Trip

By SUSAN OVERSTREET

The Central Washington College concert band, under the direction of A. Bert Christianson, is beginning to pack its belongings and buy its traveling tickets, because just a week from Monday, very early in the morning of February 14, the fifty instrumentalists and would-be musicians are taking off for their annual band tour of the state.

During the three-day tour the band will play concerts at Selah, Wapato, Naches, Toppenish, Sunnyside, Kennewick, Pasco, and Grandview, with an overnight invasion of Goldendale, "way over the mountains where the air begins to smell salty.

The program for this year's band tour will include a number by George F. McKay of the University of Washington, and "Psalm for Band" by Vincent Persichetti of Juilliard School of Music, a modernistic piece employing unusual harmonies and tone colors.

The trombone quartet, Fred Duncan, Don Goodale, Bob Dalton and John Snypp, will play; and a brass quartet, Harley Brumbaugh, Shirley Frick, Richard Frick, and Fred Duncan, will be on the program. Brumbaugh, this time as a member of someone else's band and without charge will play the well-known "Carnival of Venice" for trumpet.

town appearances and spaghetti dinners.

Band officers are Don Goodale, president; Sec.-Treasurer, Fred Duncan; and Manager—the man who really does the work, Gary Johnson.

Band members chosen to make the trip include:

McConnell Promises Relief Of Student Parking Problem

President Robert E. McConnell, president of Central Washington College recently issued some encouraging statements concerning the parking problem at Central.

"As soon as winter is over so that landscaping can be done, we will find a solution to this problem" the president told the CRIER.

"The outcome of our requests in the Legislature will determine to a large degree how much can be done about surfacing new and present areas," he added.

The president's statements came on the heels of student action in SGA Council and in Student Faculty Coordinating Board for adequate parking facilities. This action was precipitated largely by the recent restriction of parking on Walnut Street by the Ellensburg City Council.

President McConnell referred to this situation saying that he realizes that it has forced students to park on city streets and in parking places even further from campus.

Central has inadequate parking facilities for the cars on campus now and the expected increase of cars spring quarter makes the future appear even blacker.

The administration and student government have been working together to secure more parking for students. The situation at the present time finds Kennedy hall, a girls dorm, the only dormitory with a parking lot.

A cinder lot south of the railroad tracks is the only parking place, other than lining the sides of city streets, available to Central students.

Plans are now being made to purchase and surface new lots especially in the vicinity of North Hall and Munson Hall, both men's dorms without any parking facilities. The pre-fab area, which has limited parking in the court is also in line for an additional parking lot.

But, as the president states, work on these areas must wait a few months when the results of the current legislature in Olympia are determined and when the weather will allow construction work on parking areas.

Parking Picture Brightens

President McConnell's statement (see story, Page 1) concerning the relief of the parking problem is the first bright light to be focused on this dark picture in years.

The parking situation has been getting increasingly worse for years and its a relief to see the administration take the bull by the horns and do something about constructing new parking lots.

So if the students can just grin and bear it for a few more months it looks like we're finally on our way out of this distressing problem.

Class on the 22nd?

Central Washington College is again scheduled to hold classes on the 22nd of February—the day when the rest of the country celebrates a national holiday honoring the first president and founding father of the United States.

Especially in Washington state, the only state named after a president, should this holiday be honored. In fact the very name of this institution, which annually must be urged to reserve this day as a holiday, honors this great man.

From a less patriotic but practical point of view the loss of one day from this quarter will not harm the students or stunt their educational growth. Winter quarter is a long quarter unbroken by other holidays and coming as it does in the middle of the quarter, this day off may be of benefit to both students and instructors.

After a little urging by the students, the administration will undoubtedly decide that Central Washington will, as is only fit and proper, take one day off to honor the father of our country.

Presidential By-Line

BY BRUCE FERGUSON

SGA President

I guess you know what kind of an SGA Council you have this year. They were elected to serve you, and I think they are doing an excellent job.

Sometimes their decisions don't satisfy you and you feel bitter. This is only natural for all of us. But remember your representative is trying to satisfy the majority of his dormitory or living group. Before he or she makes a decision they attempt to give it careful consideration and act accordingly.

If the majority's interests weren't served first the Council would be swamped with minor wants and complaints. However, if you are in the minority and the Council's decision hurts you or your group, bring your troubles to us and we will try to work something out for you.

There is a big responsibility involved with the Council and it certainly isn't easy to decide for others. I imagine we have made enemies and we have made friends but the important thing is we have tried to give the majority fair representation.

Most of our actions, decisions and help have been toward social functions and now we are turning to sports activities. If we are slow getting around to your particular interest, bear with us and eventually we will make it.

I was under the impression that MIA, Men's Intramural Association was a small group of men, but from a recent report, I find that I was wrong and I certainly want to apologize. I find that they are interesting a large number of men in the athletic fields and that they are well represented by the various living groups. More power to them and I hope their interest in sports participation increases.

The annual Junior Safety Conference is coming up on the 28th of February. It is being held in Yakima at the Chinook Hotel. The Veteran's Club on our campus have shouldered the responsibility of heading the four different panels made up of numerous high school students from surrounding school districts.

This is a very worthwhile project and the Veterans Club deserves thanks for taking up this project. They are a newly organized club with quite a few members and they are proving their interest in serving the school by taking on this project.

Another worthwhile project just held on this campus was Central's third REW. This event enables students to learn a little more about religion's place in our society and to strengthen and reaffirm any religious convictions they may have.

One noteworthy aspect of REW is the splendid job of organization that went into it. I don't imagine that there is one student on campus who didn't hear a speaker in class, go to an assembly or notice a book exhibit or signs. The committee certainly did a thorough job of bringing Religious Emphasis Week to every student.

And while we're passing out compliments, the senior class deserves a big pat on the back for reinstating the snow carnival. After a lapse of several years, the success of this year's venture should again make this carnival a enjoyable yearly function.

Improperly adjusted brakes can throw you for a loss quickly on slippery winter roads—motorists are warned by the Washington State Patrol.

Ray's Daze

By STEBNER

I wish to acknowledge a letter received Saturday concerning my column. Among other things contained in the letter there was a cute poem which I feel merits printing.

"Love is such a funny thing,
It wriggles like a lizard.

It wraps itself around your heart,
And nibbles at your gizzard."

Many thanks to "Cassandra," whoever you are, for the poem.

Television?

TV show of the month is: "KING's Queen". This delightful program is designed to give helpful hints on cooking simple dishes. For instance, baked ham hocks of African warrior ant rolled in crushed mongoose bones or; soufflé of gnat's kidney's on half a toasted bun.

Of course, all you need to cook these "simple" dishes is an electronic, dual purpose, triple duty, automatic, synchroneshing oven; a seven speed, reversible, gyroscopic, combination potato masher, mix master, meat cutter, egg broiler, dish washer, and can opener and a years supply of "Money."

Advertisement?

Mustn't forget the advertisement for food products such as "Buy Mountain Brook Ice Cream and notice the rich creamy texture as it runs down your chin on to your new suit" or; "Get Aunt Jamaca's Biscuit Mix. In less than thirty seconds the biscuits will rise filling your kitchen and living room. Guaranteed non-explosive."

Victory?

Someone mentioned to me the other day that we had a "victory" bell at one time which was situated on the gym roof and was rung whenever we won a game in sports. If there was such a bell, and it is still around in usable condition why don't we revive the tradition of ringing it?

We could have a dance called the Victory Flip and have a contest for Miss Central Bell Ringer to reign over the dance.

Thought?

Most people know they can't take it with them, but they kill themselves trying.

Women's Recreation Club Sponsors Dance

Women's Recreation Club will sponsor an all-college dance Friday, February 4, from 9 to 12, in the men's gymnasium. Music will be by records, and the prices are 25 cents for couples and 15 cents for stags.

The planet Jupiter has 1,300 times the volume of the earth.

Politicians Stage Joint Discussions

The 1954 political workshop for the political minded has started turning out an array of panels, stimulating a student interest in lectures and field trips aimed at political issues.

The faculty lounge was jammed when the Young Democrats and the Young Republicans held a panel on current controversies.

A Republican rebuttal followed the topics—leader Bob Allen's introduction and party philosophy, a discussion of the tax situation by Elden Peterson, and Roger Salisbury's talk on farm policy.

At another get-together the Young Democrats heard Dr. Samuel Mohler's comments on a pertinent public affairs topic. The members are making plans for a trip to Olympia at the invitation of Senator Nat Washington and Representative Brigham Young.

Asserting that there would be more debates and activities in the future, the next panel will feature either the 18-year-old vote issue or farm policy, and in the spring workshop, debate on state income tax, club officials announced.

North Formal Set for CUB

For the first time in CUB history, a dance will be held in the main lounge when the all-college formal "Winter Wonderland" is staged there Saturday, Feb. 28.

Lou Richards, SGA officer, explained that the "no dances in the lounge" rule was broken recently by Union Board vote. Richards stressed that CUB dances will be limited to one a quarter, must be all-college formals, and will be limited to 100 couples.

North hall will sponsor the affair. Bob Sullivan, social commissioner for the dorm, is working on the prospect of bringing in a Yakima band for the dance.

Marilyn Grove, Barbara Carstens and Jan Wiley will provide intermission entertainment. Tickets will go on sale Feb. 23.

The CUB will remain open to all students during the dance.

Letters

... to the Editor

Dear Editor:

In Presidential By-Line last week Bruce Ferguson brought out the old topic concerning dancing in the main lounge of the CUB.

Although it has been passed that formal dances can now be held in the CUB lounge, dorms or other organizations still cannot use the lounge for regular dances. Ferguson stated that the lounge is the most beautiful spot on campus and, if dances are held in the lounge, paper, cigarettes and assorted trash will mar its beauty.

First of all why do we build new buildings like the CUB if they aren't to use? If its an art gallery the campus wants, lets build a magnificent building and charge admission to look at it.

The kids are allowed to dance in the rear lounge and I think it is in pretty good condition after three and a half years. The CUB was built to be functional as well as beautiful so why not use it. I'm sure the floors and foundation will stand a lot more wear and tear than the floor in the gym or the chow hall on Walnut street.

As far as the Lounge being cluttered up with trash, we have student janitors whose job it is to keep the CUB clean, and I'm sure the students would be willing to cooperate if they had a chance to use the lounge.

Lets not condemn the students before they have had a chance to prove one way or the other how they would treat a privilege such as this.

I think there is one more important factor that enters in and that is that students built and are paying for the CUB, not the State. Therefore, the students should have the voice on how they want to use the CUB facilities.

What say we start operating like a college and not an over-grown high school.

Schooled in the highest traditions of classic ballet, Miss Boris' dancing career is studded with brilliant associations, first as soloist with the Ballet Caravan and then as prima ballerina with the Metropolitan Opera Company and the Ballet Russe De Monte Carlo.

Good looking and versatile Frank Hobi won his laurels as a leading American dancer through his activities with the Ballet Theatre, Ballet Russe and as a principal with the New York City Ballet.

Students Polled On Tuition Bill

Central students have been given an opportunity to help with the college's state legislative program this week, as the administration asked students to fill out and return a questionnaire on a proposed Senate tuition bill.

The questionnaire, issued from the offices of the deans, concerned a state senate bill proposed by Senators Shannon and Riley of Seattle which would require Central to charge a tuition of $30 per year for state students and $150 per year for out-of-state students.

The information contained on this questionnaire will be used to guide the Board of Trustees in dealing with this legislation. The results of the questionnaire would help determine how the proposed bill would affect enrollment at Central.

The questionnaire asks the students (1—if they are earning part of their college expenses and if so what portion does the student pay, and 2)—would they continue at Central if the tuition was raised as proposed.

A joint meeting of the three Boards of Trustees at Central went on record recently as opposing any tuition charges at any of the three colleges of education in Washington state.

"If you have not turned in your questionnaire yet, please do so immediately" Dean Stinson, dean of men urged. "It will be necessary to have almost all questionnaires returned to make this poll of any value in determining enrollment should this bill pass," he explained.

'55 Senior Snow Carnival Draws Crowd to Swauk

By SYLVIA STEVENS

Off-Campus men and the girls of Sue Lombard captured the first place trophies at the Swauk Senior Snow Carnival last Saturday. A large crowd turned out to both watch and participate in skiing activities.

Trophies for individual and dorm winners were presented at the "Blizzard Blues" dance in the gym Saturday night.

Bob Bartleson of Montgomery took first place in the men's downhill. Bartleson, a freshman from Highline of Seattle, is on the Snoqualmie Ski Patrol.

Dar Brown of Sue won first place in the girls' downhill. She is a Leavenworth sophomore.

Sue Lombard and Montgomery also walked off with first place in the toboggan race. But Off-Campus was finally awarded the men's trophy because of its large number of winning entrants.

"I felt the Senior Ski Carnival was a huge success activity-wise—there were 68 entries, with even more skiing," Dick Burnham, senior class president, commented.

"The trophies presented will carry over to next year's winners. Much of the credit for the success of the dance and carnival should go to Jim Lauritsen, Bev Taylor, Skip Connot and their committees," he continued.

Burnham suggested that skiing results might be counted toward intramural points for the MIA.

PLAYDAY CANCELLED

The Swauk Playday scheduled for this Saturday has been cancelled.

The Lodge at Swauk has been leased for the day by an Ellensburg group so that the toboggan sled and the lodge lobby will not be available, Munro Hall officials explained.

My Point of View

By
Bill Leth
Sports Editor

There has been a change in the dates of the 12-line roll-off to select the six-man bowling team to represent Central at the Regional Intercollegiate Bowling Tournament at Pullman early in April.

The roll-off had been originally scheduled for the first three Sunday afternoons in March but a recheck showed that spring vacation comes during this time. The dates have been changed to the following Sundays—March 6, 13, and 27.

Can't Do Worse

Central has several exceptional bowlers who are bowling for teams in the City League and bowling is an up-and-coming sport here at Sveeey. The bowling classes in physical education are one of the first classes to close because the interest in this sport is growing.

Last year the bowling tourney was held at the University of Washington and the University of Oregon bowling team placed first in the 10 team field. Central came in last. Don Bolton, a member of last year's CWC team, has been bowling in the City League this winter and he has taken the scoring honors for the evening several times.

Elsewhere in the CRIER you will see a big advertisement for the United States Olympic Team. As you may or may not know, the next Olympics are to be held at Melbourne, Australia in 1956. The Olympic committee is having trouble getting funds to send a team to Australia. The U.S. team is sent to the Olympics on money from donations while their nearest threat in the competition, Russia, has their team sponsored by the state. This gives them quite an advantage as far as money goes, but I still think we have enough better athletes in the United States to beat them in the competition.

Good Cause

If you happen to have some extra money laying around and you don't know what to do with it, and you are a loyal American and a loyal sports fan, why don't you send it to the Olympic Committee, as every little bit will help.

Tonight and tomorrow night the Wildcats have a crucial two games in Tacoma. They must win these two games to stay in contention for the Evergreen Conference basketball title. PLC and Whitworth are on top of the conference now, but the Lutes have to play both the Wildcats and the Whits this weekend so there should be some shuffling in the standings. If Central wins the rest of its games and PLC and Whitworth split there will be a three way tie for first place between these three teams.

Can Be Beat

Even though they lost their 6-10 center, Phil Jordan, the Whitworth Pirates are going to be hard to stop this season. I think the only place that they can be beaten is away from home. Their surplus height on their long narrow floor at Country Home will be too much for most of the teams in this conference, with the exception of PLC, maybe. The Lutes also have a tall team. The Pirates can control the boards and keep a smaller team from working the ball around on their narrow floor. They may run into trouble away from home on a wider floor where a small team can run them to death.

Cats Split Weekend's Tilts; Beat EWC, Lose to Whits

The Central Washington Wildcats split their two Evergreen Conference games this last weekend in the Spokane area. They beat Eastern Friday night 80-67 and then traveled to Whitworth and absorbed a 75-55 defeat, their second in five conference starts. This left them with a season's record of 13 wins against two losses.

Cats Blast Savages

In last Friday night's Evergreen Conference game at Cheney, the Wildcats surged back after a 36-35 deficit at half time to dump the Savages 80-67 for their third straight conference win against one loss.

Led by forward Jack Brantner the Cats hit for 16 straight counters to take a 51-36 lead before Eastern could hit from the floor. Over nine minutes of the second half was gone before Dick Edwards hit for the Savages' first bucket of the second half.

Brantner hit 13 points in the second half to run his total to 22 for the game which was high for the game. Bob Logue bucketed 16 points and Don Heacox got 14 counters for the Cats while Jack Baines and Edwards countered with 13 and 12 for the Savages.

This win made it four wins out of four games for the "Red-Hot" Wildcats over their Eastern Washington rivals this season, two of them in conference action.

Flashy Guard Best Scorer

Currently the leading scorer on the Central hoop squad, Don "Lefty" Myers has established himself as one of the most colorful campaigners in the Evergreen Conference.

The sharp shooting 5 ft. 9 in. guard has poured 224 points through the hoop for the Cats so far this season. Don is a scoring threat from any place on the floor but thinks his best weapon is a left handed set shot from in front of the key.

This little southpaw is also an excellent dribbler and an above average foul shooter. Myers gets a lot of shots because of his uncanny ability to be in the right place at the right time.

Don was one of the most sought after athletes in the state when he graduated from Wapato high school in 1953. During his prep career Don lettered three years each in football, basketball and baseball. During his senior year Myers made all-conference in football, all-valley in baseball, and all-state on the basketball team composed of players that didn't go to the state tournament.

The Myers family moved to Wapato from Tillilando, Texas in 1941. Don's folks now live in Yakima, having moved there last fall.

Don has a twin sister, an older brother and another younger sister. The 20 year old sophomore is majoring in Recreation with a minor in industrial arts. Don says he would like to be a park superintendent or a park director after he graduates.

Gonzaga Picked To Play Champs

Sunday at the District 1 meeting of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics, held here at Central, it was announced that Gonzaga University will represent the state's independent teams in the District 1 playoff for a berth to the national NAIA tournament at Kansas City.

Gonzaga will meet the Evergreen Conference champion at either the Gonzaga gym or the Spokane Coliseum, depending upon which team wins the conference title. The best two-out-of-three series will be held February 28 and March 1-2.

As it stands now, Whitworth College and Pacific Lutheran College, who are tied for first place in the conference race, have the best chance to take the title. Central Washington College can't be counted out of the race yet either, as the Wildcats, even though they have a 3-2 record, still have a mathematical chance to win the conference championship.

The District 1 committee also decided to poll the member schools on the choice of a site for the annual NAIA district track meet. Both Renton, which held the meet in 1953, and Walla Walla, which held the meet last year, bid for the event again this year.

Leo Nicholson, Central Washington director of athletics, is the president of the District 1 NAIA and Perry Mitchell, also of CWC, is the secretary.

MIA Basketball League Action

American League

Off Campus, Montgomery I, and ASD are leading the American League with identical 2 won and no loss records. These three teams are followed by the Fagouts who have defeated North II 53 to 36 in their only outing.

ASD has nipped Munson I 42-40, and dumped Munson III 67-32; Off Campus' two victories have been over North III, 54-32, and North I 41-39; Montgomery I has defeated the Kennewicks 43-42 and Alford I 67-26.

National League

Carmody I's high scoring club, led by Fred Hauff, is in the top spot in the National League as of last week.

The Carmody five has racked up three straight wins and appear to be the best team in the league. Last week they breezed past Montgomery III, 68-41 and Carmody III, 74-41.

Munson IV, Pismos, and Carmody II have posted two wins against no losses, and are pressing Carmody I for the league lead. The Pismos edged the Meat Packers 33-25 and walloped North IV, 81-21, to post their two victories.

Dick Carlson, Pismo center, tossed in 16 field goals in their win over North IV. Jack Lindberg of Carmody II also scored 32 points as his club trampled Montgomery II, 77-20. Lindberg and Carlson's 32 point spree tops the previous

Central In Tacoma For Crucial Tilts

Central Must Beat CPS, PLC To Remain in Title Contention

The Central Washington Wildcats will be making a last ditch attempt to stay in the running for at least a part of the Evergreen Conference title this weekend in Tacoma. They play the Pacific Lutheran Gladiators tonight, then switch opponents with Whitworth and face the College of Puget Sound Loggers on Saturday night.

After splitting last weekend's tilts the Cats have a conference record of three wins and two losses. This means the Central must beat PLC and Whitworth, who are unbeaten in conference play, both having 5-0 records. Furthermore the two top teams virtually have to split their series to allow the Cats to have a chance for a tie for the title.

Central will be seeking revenge against PLC tonight. The Gladiators put on a second half drive to take a 71-69 win from the Cats in the two teams first meeting at Ellensburg. This loss knocked Central out of the ranks of the undefeated in the Northwest.

PLC has a potent combination of height, speed, and shooting ability led by forward Phil Nordquist and guard Jack Sinderson. However, Central coach Leo Nicholson has been firing his charges up all week for this contest and it should be quite a tussle.

The Wildcats hold a 81-70 non conference verdict over the CPS Loggers, as the Puget Sounders have been having a rough time staying in the win column this season.

The Loggers have an experienced squad with two very good players in forward Bill Medin and guard Russ Wilkerson, and may prove tougher when playing for keeps.

Nicholson will probably move Don Lyall into a starting berth at center to add more scoring punch to the Central attack against the Tacoma schools. No other changes are indicated in the Wildcat's starting line-up.

We were there ...and won!

The names of America's Olympic greats are easily remembered. Because the men and women we have sent to past Olympic Games have always given us something to remember them by. Jesse Owens' four gold medals at Berlin . . . Bob Mathias' decathlon record at Helsinki . . . Andrea Mead Lawrence's historic "double" in women's skiing. In recalling past triumphs we can all be reminded of a simple fact about any U. S. Olympic victory; we won because we were there, and...

We must be there . . . To Win!

In 1956 America will again take the field in Melbourne, Australia against the world's best. Some of these nations will be very tough to beat. For in an effort to insure victory, many countries, especially those behind the Iron and Bamboo curtains, have entered "government-subsidized" teams. Whether these nations are defeated depends in large part upon you—and every American who would rather see the Stars and Stripes hoisted above the victor's stand. You can count on the men and women we send to Melbourne to perform brilliantly—if they are there. But it takes money to get them there. Which is why LIFE is joining with the Olympic Committee to urge you to . . .

Support Your Olympic Team Fund!

Congress has authorized President Eisenhower to declare October 16th to be National Olympic Day. Bob Hope in his October 12th nation-wide telecast is giving his far reaching and effective support. Throughout the country, local civic groups, spearheaded by the Junior Chambers of Commerce—have actively begun to raise funds. Many are helping. But everybody can help. And you can do your share by mailing a contribution, large or small, to the Fund's Chicago headquarters, today.
